Chadsworth Incorporated Offers New Cutting-Edge Home Essentials

Leading manufacturer/distributor is accompanied by Focal Point and Atlantic Premium Shutters™ to offer a variety of home products.

WILMINGTON, N.C., October 7, 2009 — For more than 20 years, Chadsworth Incorporated has served the building industry with their award-winning columns, pergolas and balustrades. Now, they are excited to expand their commitment to the building community with the addition of new home products from Focal Point and Atlantic Premium Shutters™. When asked by their customers to extend their quality craftsmanship to more products within the architectural scene, Chadsworth responded with only the best products to ensure customer satisfaction.

"Chadsworth's business model is changing with the times," says Jeffery L. Davis, founder and designer of Chadsworth Incorporated. "Where we used to be just a column manufacturer and distributor, we have now partnered with several top tier companies to distribute their brands of products. Now, our clients can come to us to purchase all the architectural elements for their building projects like moldings, door surrounds, shutters, etc. and enjoy the professionalism and expertise they have come to expect from a name like Chadsworth."

Chadsworth is proud to introduce Focal Point's superior polyurethane moldings and distinct architectural elements such as domes, wall niches, niche caps, rosettes, corbels, casings and more. The assortment of products can be found under 'millwork' on their web site (www.columns.com). Together, their aim is to transform your home or building into a place of unmatched elegance. Whether interiorly or exteriorly, you are assured to find an array of designs that represent genuine architectural integrity.

They also are excited to provide you with the most refined and best functioning shutters. That is why Chadsworth Incorporated is joined by Atlantic Premium Shutters™. Both their Architectural and Classic designs are hand crafted to your specifications, which adds beauty and durability to any shutter. Also, their shutters are comprised of composite wood and an innovative fiberglass to ensure moisture resistance, rot deterrence and termite prevention.

Chadsworth Incorporated is eager to provide you with all of your home or building necessities, and we would like to again welcome you to our new lines of products by Focal Point and Atlantic Premium Shutters™.
