Mr. Jeffrey L. Davis, the Founder and Principle Designer of Chadsworth's 1.800.COLUMNS located at 277 N. Front Street in Historic Wilmington, NC was a recent guest on House & Garden Television's popular show, Curb Appeal.

Curb Appeal*, which is filmed in Washington, D.C., and San Francisco, shows you how to make the most of your home's appearance. Each episode features a real house and homeowner with guest experts who discuss the owner's needs and propose projects to improve the home's appearance. In this episode, Davis helps create a portico where there was none to give the home a more welcoming look.

"We are always happy to be a guest on Curb Appeal", says Davis, "with so many people building and remodeling, it's good to be able to show how columns can enhance the look of their home".

Curb Appeal* airs on HGTV on Tuesday evening at 8 pm, and is re-played many times over the season so that viewers may take advantage of the helpful guidance the show provides.
